

Course Content for Diploma in Supervision

1. Defining, discussing the history of counselling Supervision.
2. The roles and qualities of the Supervisor/Supervisee.
3. The Supervision Contract.
4. The tasks of supervision and implications for practice.
5. Exploring Supervision Models.
6. The development process of the supervisee and the authority of the supervisor.
7. The BACP Ethical framework and implications for supervision.
8. Ethical and legal Dilemmas
9. Culture and Diversity in Supervision
10. The “difficult” supervisee
11. Developing practice, Knowledge, Research and CPD.
12. Using Creative Approaches to Supervision.
13. Different forms of Supervision: Group, Face to Face, Telephone, On Line/Skype.
14. Skills Practice...working in small and large groups
15. The Supervision Development Group (one hour over each weekend-open forum)
16. Self-care, Burnout and Vicarious Trauma.